

CCTV image released of man police want to trace

Edinburgh Police today released a CCTV image of a man they wish to trace in connection with a serious assault on a 21-year-old woman at an address in Viewcraig Street, Edinburgh on Wednesday 30 August 2017

It is believed that the man in the photo is of interest to detectives investigating the matter. They ask anyone who recognises him to come forward.

Detective Sergeant Paul Cooper of Edinburgh's Public Protection Unit said: "This has understandably been extremely distressing for the victim involved and we continue to follow up all lines of enquiry.

"The man pictured is believed to be of significance to our investigation, and we would urge anyone who recognises him not to approach him but to come forward to police as soon as possible.

"Anyone with information can call Police Scotland on 101 or contact Crimestoppers in complete anonymity on 0800 555 111."
