

Into Film Festival in November – Free film for 5-19 year-olds

This free annual celebration of film and education comes to Edinburgh next month.

Booking is now open for club leaders and teachers to book places for free cinema screenings. There are 3,000 films at over 600 venues across the UK.

There will be guest speakers from the film industry and there will be lots of handouts for schools and clubs to take away and continue the learning.

The line-up with places still available includes the following (but this is not a comprehensive list so it gives you some idea of how many opportunities there are for clubs and organisations to see FREE films!)
