

Invisible Edinburgh clear in their objectives

This Saturday Invisible Edinburgh are organising a Street Barber for homeless men. There is every possibility that if this is a success then the service will be opened to homeless women too.

Monty Roy owner of the police box and Zakia Moulaoui of Invisible Edinburgh

We spoke with Monty who owns the police box on Leith Walk and Zakia Moulaoui from Invisible Edinburgh about the initiative. There will be free barbering sessions on the last Saturday of each month going forward.

This is a lovely idea from @InvisibleEdin and they are using the @Leithpolicebox We spoke to Monty and Zakia about the Street Barber pic.twitter.com/jJAckBG8df

– Edinburgh Reporter (@EdinReporter) October 26, 2017

More information in our earlier article here.