

Last chance to buy your new home in Pennywell

Urban Union has been building new homes at Pennywell in Muirhouse for some years, but now the final phase is on sale.

There is just one house and a handful of apartments left for sale. The two bedroom Laird is available for £185,000.

Neil McKay, Urban Union, said: “With just one house left, buyers will need to act fast to snap up the last house at Pennywell Phase 2.

“The second phase of new homes at Pennywell has proved extremely popular with existing members of the community as well as new people moving to the area. The development is a great choice for young professionals and families, with access to great transport links and within close proximity to city centre amenities.”

Pennywell Living lies in the neighbourhoods of Muirhouse and West Pilton. Just south of the A90, its location also provides easy access to both the M8 and Forth Road Bridge.
