

Missing person traced safe and well in Scottish Borders

Police have confirmed that Alan Easton who was reported missing at the weekend has been traced.

The 68-year-old was last seen in the Comiston area on Sunday.

He was found safe and well in the Scottish Borders on Monday.

Officers would like to thank all those who supported the appeal for information.