

Speedway – Masters misfires in Oz

Sam Masters pictured by Jack Cupido

Edinburgh Monarchs skipper Sam Masters had a disappointing night in the Grand Prix in Melbourne.

The Aussie racer scored only two points from five rides.

His former Edinburgh team-mate Justin Sedgmen collected four points in the meeting.

Their countryman Jason Doyle won grand final on the day and the Grand Prix title overall.

British rider Tai Woffinden was second in the grand final with Bartosz Zmarzlik of Poland third.