

Speedway – Tigers slip up at home

Richard Lawson top scored for Tigers. Picture Ian Adam

SGB Championship: Glasgow Tigers 43, Workington Comets 47

Glasgow Tigers bid to finish a disappointing season on a high note ended in disappointment.

They lost 47-43 at home to Workington Comets with former Glasgow rider Ben Barker using his track knowledge to top score for the visitors with 13 points.

Richard Lawson was best for Glasgow with 12 points.

The home side led 21-15 after six races but Comets fought back and stunned Tigers with a 5-1 in Heat 11 thanks to Barker and Mason Campton.

They closed the match out with four straight 3-3 scorelines.