

Theatre – ‘Thirteen’, Leith Academy, Festival Theatre Studio

With a delicious (suggestively malicious?) Hallowe'en weekend sense of timing, Advanced Higher Drama students in their final year of school are inspired by the works of theatre practitioners; Artaud, Brecht and Frantic Assembly. Writing and directing their own pieces of work, they explore current social issues. Prepare to see 13 short pieces of drama, which aim to shock, educate and inspire!

Fri 27 October | The Studio

7pm

Age: 16+ Strong themes, strong language and flashing lights
