

Boxing – Easton continues fight build-up

Jason Easton displays his prized belt won during his last fight at Braehead. Picture Nigel Duncan Media

Edinburgh's undefeated IBF Inter-Continental super lightweight champion Jason Easton continues to work hard in the gym in Craigmillar ahead of the defence of his belt against unbeaten Czech champion Josef Zahradnik in November.

Cyclone stablemate Martin Bakole faces his first title fight against Belgium's undefeated Ali Baghouz for the vacant IBF Continental heavyweight championship.

Northampton's unbeaten prospect Chantelle Cameron continues her rapid rise when she squares-up to Mexico's Edith Ramos. The vacant IBF Inter-Continental super featherweight title is at stake here.

Cruiserweight prospect Chris Billam-Smith faces Czech warrior Jan Hrazdira in a four-round contest.

And Haddington's popular middleweight Iain Trotter boxes a Polish fighter in a four-round contest.

Meanwhile, Lee McGregor's management team confirmed that an opponent for the Edinburgh bantamweight prospects professional debut will be announced shortly.

All these fights are on the undercard to the Josh Taylor v Miguel Vazquez clash at The Royal Highland Centre at Inglishton on Saturday, November 11 and tickets are still available.