

Brand New Party for Sunday 1st April 2018

Terminal V, a pioneering collaboration in Edinburgh which has already had two immense parties in the city this year, will be hosting a third event in 2018 on Easter Sunday.

The show will take place at the Royal Highland Centre, Ingliston.

The first guests revealed for the party include Kolseh, Rodhad, Bicep, Peggy Gou and Amelie Lens. These 5 opening artists have been chosen as some of the finest exponents of house and techno, from some of the world's biggest names from behind the decks and in the studio.

Terminal V's Derek Martin says: "We are just recovering from Elrow which was quite simply crazy – we have been blown away by having such a massive event here in the city with a brilliant lineup and also the mind-bogglingly good production those guys put into their parties."

"We feel there's a huge appetite for daytime events and we will making this our best yet – there are loads more names to announce in the coming weeks and months."

Terminal V Sunday 1st April 2018 @ Royal Highland Centre, Ingliston, Edinburgh, Scotland, EH28 8NB Alphabetical order: Kölsch / Bicep / Rødhåd / Amelie Lens / Peggy Gou All day event / info and tickets at: www.terminalv.co.uk