

Local businesses give Castle Street Christmas Fair lots of cheer

From 20-26 November 2017 the Castle Street Christmas Fair will take place with festive stalls featuring Scottish and international producers.

Local businesses, bars and shop-owners on Castle Street including High & Mighty, Jessops, Badger & Co and Castello Coffee would like visitors to pop in to their shops too.

Director of LocalMotive Markets, Tania Pramschufer said "We are creating a week long magical Christmas event this year, with stalls selling a host of Scottish, international and ethical crafts & gifts, from hand-made soaps to fashion, artworks and woodcrafts and a wide range of local food and drink."

"We have had a hearty response from local Castle Street businesses who can offer a welcome escape from our busy festive fair with cosy Castello Coffee, right next to the market for some of the best warming soups in town, coffee & home baking and stylish Badger & Co bar restaurant further up the street as well as lots more Christmas shopping nearby."

Stalls include Caurie Soaps, Jenny Handley artist, Bakery Andante, Polish Honey, Designer Candle Company, Rose Cottage Drinks (gin liqueurs), After the Rain (Boxes from Madagascar), Gecko Galleries (Ethical gifts from India), Vybrid (wooden plaque gifts) and from Kenya – Dorothy from Dorostel International, Braw a Taste offering Scottish food & drink including hot mulled Thistly Cross Cider, The Woodland Trust and Cat Protection League.

The Castle Street Fair will be taking place soon from the 20-26 November 2017.
