

Miss Saigon – Miss a chance in a lifetime audition?

Miss Saigon at The Edinburgh Festival Theatre

Wednesday 17 January – Saturday 17 February 2018

Cameron Mackintosh's new production of Boublil and Schönberg's legendary musical MISS SAIGON is looking for boys or girls to play the role of 'Tam'.

'Tam' is small, cute, confident and South East Asian looking. He is not younger than four and not older than 6. Children must live within a commutable distance of Edinburgh.

For further information and to apply, please email Joanne Hawes on joanne.hawes2013@gmail.com including a small head and shoulders photograph.

<http://www.edtheatres.com/misssaigon>