

Speedway – Rossiter headlines Burns Supper

Armadale, home of Edinburgh Monarchs.

Picture Nigel Duncan Media

Great Britain team manager Alun Rossiter is the special guest at the Edinburgh Monarchs 100 Burns Supper at Danderhall Miners Club on Saturday, 20 January.

He took Great Britain to this year's speedway World Cup Final in Leszno and won the British Premiership title with his initially unfancied Swindon Robins.

Robins' No 1 Jason Doyle won the 2017 World Championship recently.

Former Scottish star Kenny McKinna has also accepted an invitation.

Tickets are £30 plus a 60p booking fee and will be available shortly for a three-course meal with a dram.