

Take a seat at Vue – a nice new comfortable recliner awaits you

Vue Ocean Terminal has recently undergone a major transformation.

Ian Chester General Manager of Vue Ocean Terminal tries out the new seats

Every single standard seat has been replaced with a luxurious padded leather recliner, and the good news is that there is no increase in the price of cinema tickets.

Vue Ocean Terminal become one of only a handful of Vue venues to have recliners across the whole cinema with all seats in the 12 screens refurbished.

Before the refurbishment

Work on the new First Class seating has been completed in time for guests to enjoy the exciting November line-up which includes the much anticipated, Justice League.

Here is the after look with recliners for everyone

Ian Chester, General Manager of Vue Ocean Terminal said: "We're incredibly pleased with our refurbished screens here in Vue Ocean Terminal. The new leather recliner seats really enhance the big screen viewing experience, and they're going to be no extra cost for our customers.

"The difference the new seats make is really incredible, and I'm looking forward to customers coming down and experiencing The Recliner for themselves."
