

Women's Hockey – Edinburgh to take on GHK this weekend

Sam Judge takes high-flying Edinburgh University women to lowly GHK on Saturday.

Photo John Preece

And the students coach is determined not to slip-up as she bids to defend the Division One title.

So far, Edinburgh have 24 collected 24 points from eight wins in nine league fixtures.

The Glasgow side are eighth in the ten-strong table having only won two of their eight games. Push-off here is at 13.30.

Elsewhere, Edinburgh's other two sides in the top league are at home.

Ninth-placed Grange host Clydesdale Western who are fourth at 15.40 while Watsonians, who are sixth, entertain bottom club Kelburne at 16.00