Barratt Homes Christmas card competition was won by 7 year-old Amy Gilmour who depicted Santa along with Rudolph and two snowmen and the house builder gave her a brand new bike as a prize.

A pupil at Gilmerton Primary School, Amy has designed the card which was sent to all of Barratt Homes' customers.

Anne Ross, sales director for Barratt Homes East Scotland, said: "We were really impressed with the standard of entries from Gilmerton Primary School for our Christmas card competition. I would like to thank everyone who took part. It was a difficult decision picking just one winner, but Amy's entry was the cream of the crop, so well done to her – I'm sure our customers will be delighted to receive her impressive design."

"Amy's natural flair and talent in art work has shone through and we are proud that Amy's design has been chosen to be the 2017 Christmas card for Barratt Homes."

Barratt Homes has two developments located nearby – Kilns Gait and The Limes.
