

What's on this week at the Storytelling Centre

Jekyll and Hyde: A Specimen: In this contemporary adaptation of Robert Louis Stevenson's disturbing novel, Dr Henry Jekyll believes human nature is split into good and evil- and will stop at nothing to prove it. Donald Smith's adaption of Robert Louis Stevenson's dark classic presents us with two storytellers taking to the stage to tell the tale... but will the tale finally consume both of them as well?

Thu 21 – Sat 23 Dec | 14+

7.30pm & 3pm (Sat only) (55mins)

£10 (Conc. £8, SCS £7.50, Family of 4 £32). For tickets, click here.

Stories round the tree: Join storyteller Claire Hewitt for a magical afternoon of Christmas tales. Storyteller Centre supporters offered discounted rate.

Fri 22 & Sat 23 Dec, 11am & 1.30pm, £5 full ticket price. Click here.

The Scottish Storytelling Centre is located at 43-45 High St, Edinburgh EH1 1SR.