

Fishing – instructor Culbert back at Loganlea

Steve Culbert (right) passing on his knowledge to an angler at Loganlea Trout Fishery last season, Picture by Nigel Duncan Media

Time is ticking towards the opening of the new fishing season at Loganlea Trout Fishery in The Pentland Hills in March.

And well-known fishing instructor Steve Culbert has confirmed he will again be on hand to give casting advice.

The instruction is open to anybody fishing on that day at the popular reservoir near Flotterstone.

And the dates are all Sundays.

They are March 3, April 1, May 6, June 3 and July 1 and Steve will be around from ten o'clock to two.

If you want more information contact Steve on s.culbert1@sky.com