Senior Partner of DM Hall, John Albiston, said: "These appointments are part of our overall aim to continue to promote from within and to put in place proper succession for the firm. Everyone at DM Hall wishes them every success for the future."

Ross Wilson joined DM Hall as Head of Agency (East of Scotland) in January 2017. Based in Edinburgh, he oversees the firm's activities in Edinburgh, the Borders, the Lothians, Central, Tayside and Fife. He has a wealth of experience representing national and local companies, corporate clients, pension funds and high net worth individuals and has practised in both Dundee and Edinburgh since 2003.

Mr Wilson said: "DM Hall is a highly respected name in Scottish business circles and to be appointed partner in the firm is a high point of my professional career. It is my intention to fulfil the faith my fellow partners have shown in my abilities by doing my utmost to maintain DM Hall's pre-eminent position in the Scottish property market."
