

Police car crashes in London Road whilst responding to emergency call

London Road was closed for two hours last night after a police car crashed while responding to an emergency call around 7.30pm.

No one was injured in the collision which involved a Mitsubishi and a Mercedes.

A Police Scotland spokesman said: "Enquiries are ongoing in relation to this incident."