

Police seek help to trace missing tourist

Police are appealing for help to trace a Finnish tourist who has been missing since Tuesday.

Riina Elisabeth Sjogren, 38, left Edinburgh Airport at about 8.50pm after buying a plane ticket she did not use.

She left her belongings at the Airport and travelled back into the city centre by tram arriving at York Place at 10.20pm.

Ms Sjogren is described as white, 5ft 6ins, of medium build with shoulder-length dark brown hair and wearing glasses.

Inspector Gill Lundberg said: "We are keen to speak to anyone who recognises Riina and who may be able to help us trace her.

"Similarly, if Riina sees this appeal herself, we would ask her to get in contact to let us know she is safe."

Anyone with information is asked to contact officers on 101.
