

Suspicious package found in Kings Stables Road

Police are investigating a suspicious package which was found in Kings Stables Road this evening.

A team from the Explosive Ordnance Disposal Unit attended the scene and a number of roads have been closed off including Castle Terrace and parts of Princes Street Gardens.

It is not thought that the item posed any danger to the public.