

The Chester Residence has the ultimate school holiday getaway

Scotland's 'Best Five-Star Hotel' offers a luxury experience for adults and children

Five-star luxury Edinburgh hotel The Chester Residence provides parents with the ultimate five-star luxury solution for families visiting Edinburgh this half-term or Easter break.

Having researched the definitive child-friendly itinerary, with activities that suit no matter the weather, and recommendations of the best family-friendly restaurants in the city, The Chester Residence help provide a hassle-free trip for families. All apartments are fully kitted out for children prior to guests' arrival, and the whole family is taken care of from young babies to older children.

Families travelling with babies will receive a baby welcome pack to keep their little one entertained whilst also ensuring their safety and parent's peace of mind. Older children receive a hamper on arrival which includes games, DVDs and Corky the bear – a cuddly bear which they can take home to remember their visit.

For parents preferring to dine in during their stay, the team at The Chester Residence have it covered– guests can order a luxury hamper full of delicious treats or upgrade to 'The Chester Feast', including beer and wine for the adults.

The Chester Residence is an exclusive collection of 23 unique, luxurious Georgian townhouse apartments. The apartments offer a home-from-home feel with unparalleled space, fitted kitchens, and for some apartments – their own private garden. Guests can come and go as they please as many of the apartments offer private entry, giving those with pushchairs easy access.

Each apartment is individually designed with chic, contemporary décor and features the latest technology, designer furnishings and amenities. Since opening in 2006, The Chester Residence has been awarded 25 accolades, including ‘Best Five-Star Hotel in Scotland’ in the trivago.co.uk Awards 2017.

General Manager of The Chester Residence, Jill Darling, says: “We aim to ensure that all guests, no matter their age, enjoy a luxury experience at The Chester Residence and are taken care of by our team. Families can enjoy the benefits of a five star hotel, with the comfort and added space of our luxury serviced apartments.

“With activities for all ages and plenty of fantastic family-friendly restaurants, Edinburgh is the perfect city break for any family looking to get away during half-term or Easter.”
