

Theatre – King's and Festival Theatres and the Studio Spring programme on sale now

The Doctor can't see you right now – but someone else can...

In an absolutely packed programme the King's and Festival Theatres and the Studio are showcasing the very best in live drama, dance, comedy and music and in its role as Scotland's largest cinema, the Festival Theatre will be screening the most talked-about shows from the London stages as well as films in the 2018 Banff Mountain Film Festival.

Highlights at the Festival Theatre include smash hit musical Miss Saigon, riotous comedy The Play That Goes Wrong, epic drama War Horse, the breath-taking Shen Yun and the Sting musical The Last Ship.

In case you missed it here is Sting playing at the Leith Dockers' Club last year.

Sting announces stage show The Last Ship is coming to Edinburgh from Phyllis Stephen on Vimeo.

At the King's there will be a terrific season of drama including Conor McPherson's modern classic The Weir, Phil Daniels taking on Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde, David Haig starring in Pressure and the return of Robert Powell in Sherlock Holmes: The Final Curtain.

The new brochure is on general sale now.

Click below for best-In-Ed blockbuster bonanza brochure.

2018 Banff
Mountain
Film
Festival.

https://issuu.com/festivalandkingstheatres/docs/wobro\_jan18\_hrc