

Four Hibs' players in Scotland squad for New Zealand double header

Four Hibs' players have been selected for Shelley Kerr's latest squad for next month's International Challenge double header against New Zealand.

Lucy Graham returns to the national set-up alongside club team-mates Jenna Fife, Rachel McLauchlan and Kirsty Smith.

Scotland face New Zealand twice in Spain, on Saturday 3 March (KO 4pm UK time) and Tuesday 6 March (10am UK time).

The two matches will act as preparation for Scotland, as they aim to reach their first ever World Cup, having won their opening two fixtures.

Their next competitive match is on Thursday 5 April against Switzerland away, before they play Poland in Scotland five days later.
