

Hibs game postponed due to adverse weather

Hibs' game against Hamilton Accies scheduled for tonight has been postponed due to the current adverse weather conditions.

The SPFL have made the decision to postpone all fixtures due to be played on Wednesday night, with travel warnings in place and weather causing major disruptions across the country.

A new date will be announced in due course. Tickets for tonight's match will be valid for the rearranged fixture.

The Hibernian commercial offices will now be closed for the rest of today. The Ticket Office and Clubstore will also be closed today
