

Hibs v Aberdeen heading for sell-out with no matchday sales planned

Under 500 tickets are available for Hibs home game against Aberdeen on Saturday with no matchday sales planned.

The club have advised supporters to purchase their tickets in advance of the game.

Ticket availability is now in the South Stand only, with the East, West and Famous Five Stands selling out earlier this week.

Neil Lennon's men go into the game in fine form having beaten Motherwell at Easter Road then Rangers at Ibrox after going out of the Scottish Cup last month.

Hibs currently sit fourth in the table, eight points behind the Dons who are second.

Tickets for the game are priced at £22 for adults and £12 for concessions (0-17 years, 65 or over, students with a valid student matriculation card – proof must be shown for all concession tickets)

Supporters can purchase online, calling 0844 844 1875 and selecting option 1, or visiting in-person during opening hours.
