International IT recruitment specialist Cathcart Associates, who have an office in Edinburgh, have announced the opening of a new office in Leeds.

The news follows the success of Cathcart's Manchester office which is projecting 100 per cent turnover year-on-year over the next three years taking revenue to over £4 million by the year 2020.

The company aim to support the growth of the IT industry in what is already established as one of the technology capitals of the UK.

Last year the company, which also has offices in Thailand and Germany, saw its annual turnover reach £6.5m continuing a trend of steady growth since its inception nine years ago.
