

Witness appeal following Gorebridge break-in

Police are investigating following a housebreaking at an address in Lady Brae, Gorebridge which took place between 8am and 4.45pm on Saturday, February 10.

A number of items were taken from the address, which are believed to be worth a four-figure-sum collective value.

No suspect descriptions are available at this time.

Police were contacted and officers are now appealing for witnesses.

Police Constable Gordon Martin of Midlothian's Community Investigation Unit said: "This was a high-value theft, which has resulted in the loss of a number of valuable items.

"We are eager to trace those responsible as soon as possible. I would ask anyone who was in the Lady Brae area on Saturday, February 10, and has any information that can assist our inquiries, to get in touch with us at their earliest convenience."
