

Women's hockey – three Scots used by Britain

Sarah Robertson played against Argentina

Three Scots were in the Great Britain (GB) squad defeated 3-1 by Argentina in the second game of their five-match series in Rosario.

Goals from Delfina Merino, Maria Jose Granatto and Julieta Jankunas guided Argentina to victory after Ellie Rayer had scored her first goal for Great Britain.

Captain Alex Danson made her 100th appearance for GB who started with Borders-born Sarah Robertson and used Glasgow-born Nikki Cochrane and Amy Costello from Edinburgh as substitutes.
