

Click into Asian market

George Archibald (Midlothian), Linda Scott (West Lothian) and Keith Barbour (Midlothian), joint organisers of the lunch. Picture by Nigel Duncan Media

Jim Stewart has traded in China and the wider Asian market and the director of Click Netherfield will share his experiences with local businessmen and women.

His Livingston-based firm has worked with many of the world's leading museums, architects and museum designers.

And their website carries the by appointment to The Queen credentials as display case suppliers.

The date for your diary is Thursday, March 8.

And the venue is the Macdonald Houston House Hotel in Uphall.

Joint organisers are West Lothian and Midlothian and East Lothian Chamber of Commerce.

And attendees will have ample opportunities to network before and after lunch.

The time of the event is between noon and 2pm.