

Hermand Terrace closed after car crashes into pub

Hermand Terrace was closed for a period last night after a car crashed into a pub at 10.45pm.

The incident happened outside the Gray's Mill on Slateford Road.

A Police Scotland spokeswoman said: "The car crashed into the front of the pub.

"No one was injured and no arrests have been made."