

Man charged after motorbike chase through Bilston

A man was arrested last night after police pursued a motorbike through Bilston in Midlothian.

The rider of the motorbike allegedly failed to stop for officers and he has now been charged with a number of road traffic offences.

A Police Scotland spokesman said: "A male has been arrested and charged with various road traffic offences after a motorcycle failed to stop for police tonight and a pursuit ensued in the Bilston area of Midlothian.

"A report had been submitted to the procurator fiscal."
