

Speedway – Ruml arrives and aims to deliver

Race nights like this at Armadale are about to roar into action for this season. Picture by Nigel Duncan Media

Edinburgh Monarchs' new signing Max Ruml flew into Edinburgh and said: "I'm here to do a job."

The American actually jetted into Scotland on his on his 21st birthday but California-born Ruml said he was not a party animal.

He added: "I wouldn't have been doing anything special, certainly no big party. Maybe a nice meal with my girlfriend, but I'm here to do a job."

The USA World Cup rider has work to do to complete building his bikes which are in the Midlands.

But the runner-up in last year's USA National Championships joins Matt Williamson, Ricky Wells and Josh Pickering in Britain.

Erik and Mark Riss arrive on Sunday and Joel Andersson on Monday.