

Witness appeal following death of 90-year-old woman struck by lorry

Police are appealing for witnesses following a fatal road traffic collision which took place around 11.30am yesterday morning on Piersfield Terrace near to Northfield Broadway.

A lorry travelling eastbound towards Portobello was in collision with a 90-year-old female pedestrian who suffered fatal injuries and was sadly pronounced dead at the scene.

Road Policing Officers attended along with other emergency services and the road was closed for around five hours whilst investigations were conducted at the scene.

Officers are now appealing for witnesses and are asking anyone who can help with ongoing inquiries to come forward.

Sergeant Ross Drummond from Police Scotland's Road Policing

Unit said: "This collision has resulted in the death of a woman and our thoughts and condolences are with her friends and family at this difficult time.

"Our inquiries into the full circumstances of the collision are ongoing and I would ask anyone who may have witnessed the collision, and has not yet spoken to officers, comes forward to assist with our investigations.

"Equally anyone with any information relevant to the inquiry is asked to contact us as soon as possible."

Those with information are asked to contact the Road Policing Unit in Edinburgh via 101, quoting incident number 1360 of 30th March.
