

At the Festival Theatre – Bill Murray, Jan Vogler & Friends : New Worlds

Monday 18 June, 7.30pm

When you just want something so especially eclectic, unique and wonderful? Who you going to call?

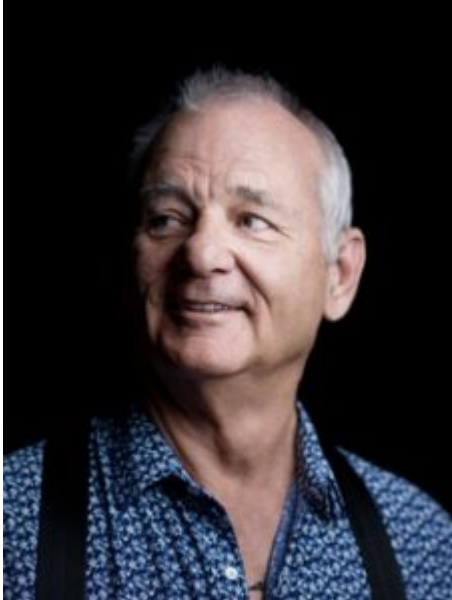

Well, what goes around – comes around and it is going to make your day.

Our friends at The Festival Theatre are delighted to present the exclusive Scottish date of Bill Murray's collaboration with cellist Jan Vogler and friends.

"I am bathing in this experience, really. I can't get enough of it." – Bill Murray

Featuring: Bill Murray, actor. Jan Vogler, cello. Mira Wang, violin. Vanessa Perez, piano

Bill Murray and Jan Vogler met during their travels and became friends in New York. Curious about each other's artistic world and interests, the actor and the cellist soon had the idea to work together on a project.

A programme that showcases the core of the American values in literature and music. A show that communicates the bridges artists have built between America and Europe. Twain, Hemingway, Whitman, Cooper, Bernstein, Gershwin and Foster are some of the strongest voices that influenced generations of humans in America and gave the world a picture of the charm, energy and creative force of the New World.

In 2017, their idea for a joint program celebrates its premiere. The Hollywood star's love for classical music is young and his art of language boundless. All the more reason to look forward to a fascinating encounter between great music and great literature featuring two masters of their art.
