

At The Usher Hall – Arabella Steinbacher with Dresden Philharmonic

Arabella Steinbacher performs Tchaikovsky's sublime violin concerto on her 1716 Stradivarius at Edinburgh's Usher Hall with the Dresden Philharmonic Orchestra

Sunday Classics at Usher Hall, Edinburgh

3:00pm, Sunday 27 May 2018

Arabella Steinbacher, Berlin, 2015, ©
www.peterrigaud.com

Arabella Steinbacher will make her Usher Hall debut and brings her charismatic and energetic performance style to this hugely popular work, with the beautiful tone of her 1716 Stradivarius coming into its own.

Steinbacher began studying violin at the age of three, and became the youngest violin student of Ana Chumachenko at the Munich Academy of Music at only 9 years old.

She is now known as one of today's leading violinists since her extraordinary 2004 debut with the Orchestre Philharmonique de Radio France under Sir Neville Marriner in Paris.

Tickets here