

Firefighters tackle large blaze at restaurant near Haymarket Railway Station

Firefighters tackled a large blaze at a restaurant on Dalry Road last night.

Emergency services were alerted shortly after 9pm to the fire at the Sombrero Bar near to Haymarket Railway Station.

A number of nearby roads closed while firefighters extinguished the fire.

A spokeswoman for SFRS said: "At 9.16pm, we received a call that a fire had broken out on Dalry Road, Edinburgh. "There were three appliances and one high appliance in attendance."