

Investigation underway after body found in Water of Leith

A police investigation is underway after a body was found floating in the Water of Leith at 7.20am on Tuesday.

Officer attended the scene however no further details have been released at this time.

A further statement is anticipated in due course.

A Police Scotland spokeswoman said: "Police in Edinburgh were called out to Glenogle Road at around 7.20am on Tuesday following the discovery of a body within the Water of Leith. "Officers and other emergency services are currently in attendance to recover the body and inquiries are continuing."