

Songs in the Round at St Cecilia's

At the University of Edinburgh's St Cecilia's Hall tonight singers Ricky Ross, Gary Clark, Justin Currie and Karine Polwart took part in an intimate evening of music and memories.

The event, arranged by writer and broadcaster Sally Magnusson, was arranged to raise awareness of the impact that meaningful music can have on people living with dementia.

The concert, titled 'Songs in the Round', was organised in support of the charity Playlist for Life and the University of Edinburgh's Centre for Dementia Prevention.
