

At Musselburgh Racecourse – 2018 Stobo Castle Ladies Day next month

It is the annual event for high heels and big hats all accompanied by beautiful horses on the track. The Stobo Castle Ladies Day takes place on 2 June and you would be well-advised to get your friends together and book your tickets now.

Ladies Day at Musselburgh Racecourse
Picture: Alan Rennie

The day is always a sell-out, but there are still tickets left at the moment with a variety of packages on offer.

There will be a new floral-themed Stage Marquee with ceiling floral displays, ice sculptures and aerial performers, live music by Ladies on Rotation and Sounds of Soul DJ collective and Grant Stott who will be mine host in the marquee. He will marshall the panel of judges who will choose the 2018 King and Queen of Style who will win cash prizes of £3,000 for the Queen and £1,000 for the King.

Aisling Johnston, marketing manager, Musselburgh Racecourse, commented: “This year Stobo Castle Ladies Day is set to be even more glamorous than ever. Featuring all the top racing action plus glamorous fashion parades housed within our new stunning Stage Marquee – not to mention a whole host of live entertainment and top prizes, there’s set to be a party atmosphere like no other.”

Book your tickets here.

Ladies Day at Musselburgh Racecourse 17 June 2017

Picture: Alan Rennie