The eye catching collections were showcased at Edinburgh College of Art's fashion show Front Row, sponsored by Cazenove Capital.

In a twist on the traditional catwalk show, every audience member was given a front row seat.

Mal Burkinshaw, Fashion Programme Director at Edinburgh College of Art, said: "We were thrilled Cazenove Capital supported this year's show, and the National Museum of Scotland was an ideal setting in which to showcase students' designs. Our graduating year developed incredibly imaginative and innovative concepts, which captivated our audience of nearly 1,000 people."
