

Penicuik business platform launched

Gin pod at The Craigie in Penicuik. The new network group will meet there or in the main hotel. Picture Nigel Duncan Media

Regular networking comes to Penicuik with the start of a new business club which is designed to help local firms boost their profile and sales.

It will meet twice a month on a Tuesday morning and the start time is 7.30am prompt with a finish at 8.50am so people can get to work.

And the venue is the newly-revamped Craigie in Bog Road. There is plenty of parking.

The opening session is on May 15 and breakfast will be served with scrambled egg, bacon and sausages and rolls/scones on the menu along with healthy alternatives.

The total cost is £8 per session and that includes breakfast and the meeting.

Organisers are Crystal FM (107.4FM) and The Craigie and the every business attending is guaranteed promotional time.

There will also be a guest speaker to provide hints and tips for your business. You have everything to gain from the new breakfast club at The Craigie.

So, the date to remember is Tuesday, May 15 and the time 7.30am. Book by emailing juan@thecraigie.co.uk and remember to bring plenty of business cards.