

The Lyceum announces Wendy and Peter Pan for Christmas 2018

All theatres have to be organised ahead of time, and the Lyceum is no different as they have already announced that this Christmas their show will be Wendy and Peter Pan from 29 November 2018 – 5 January 2019.

This has to be one of Scotland's best stories. Author JM Barrie penned the work about the boy who never grows up and this production has been adapted by Ella Hickson. This version was first performed at the Royal Shakespeare Company in 2013 and then again in 2015.

Wendy and Peter Pan will be joined by Tinkerbell and Tiger Lilly flying around the beautiful surroundings of the Lyceum in a magical visit to Neverland around Christmastime.

For more information, please visit lyceum.org.uk