

Witness appeal following serious collision in East Lothian

Police are appealing for witnesses following a serious injury road traffic collision on the B1348, Links Road, Port Seton which took place around 2.20pm on Sunday 6th May which involved an orange Nissan X-Trail and a white Ford Fiesta.

The Nissan overturned and the occupants were freed by the fire service and taken to hospital with one sustaining serious injuries. No-one in the Fiesta was hurt.

PC Julie Bishop from the Road Policing Unit at Dalkeith said: "This collision required the skills of all emergency services to deal with, which resulted in one of the occupants within the Nissan sustaining serious injuries. The area was busy with cyclists and pedestrians and I'd like to speak to anyone who may have witnessed it, or saw the manner of driving of either vehicle beforehand."

Contact Police Scotland on 101 quoting reference 2473 of Sunday 6th May, or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.
