

Architecture Fringe 2018

The theme for Architecture Fringe 2018 is Common Senses. The Fringe aims to encourage wider public participation in architecture including international engagement.

It runs until 24 June 2018 with a variety of events being held across Scotland.

This is what the Leith Walk Police Box looked like in 2014. It looks a wee bit different now!

Civic Soup, an Edinburgh based group have created a trail around Leith, transporting you to 3 different world cities and inviting you to share what you think about public spaces.

Based at Settlement Projects, Haddington Place, EH7 4AE Drop in between 12 til 5 at Settlement Projects and Leith walk Police Box, Croall Place EH7 4LT between 3 and 5 Sunday 17th June. Free.
