

At Leith Walk Police Box – Poster boy

Save-heart Printing Services is the brain child of ex soldier, Marcus.

Marcus of Save-Heart
Printing Services

Marcus has in the past experienced homelessness but has come back from his mental health problems with his business.

Save-heart is a community fundraising initiative offering uplifting posters and T shirts which can be customised and personalised, A3 and A4 printing and laminating.

He trialled his business idea at Leith walk policebox at the start of June. Pet portraits and his own T shirt designs proved to be popular.

Find out more about this or how to try out your business idea at hello@leithwalkpolicebox.com