

Bonhams Golf and Valuation Day in July

Bonhams are holding a golf and valuation day in July when they invite you to have your golfing memorabilia valued for free by their experts, and also have a round of golf.

Bonhams are holding a valuation and golf day on 3 July 2018. Guests will be invited to play a round of golf on the Old Course using hickory clubs. Mungo Parks great-grandson of Willie Park Senior will give a talk afterwards. Willie Park Senior was the first winner in 1860 and four-time winner of the British Open. Photos show Hamish Wilson Senior Valuer at Bonhams and Boris Lietzow (tweed cap) of Jack Wilson golf shop in Gullane practising with hickory clubs at Musselburgh
©2018TheEdinburghReporter All Rights Reserved

The event takes place at Musselburgh Links Golf Course on 3 July between 12 and 5pm. A talk will be given by Mungo Parks, great grandson of Willie Park Senior, the first winner in 1860 and four-time winner of the British Open.

Photo shows Hamish Wilson Senior Valuer at Bonhams practising with hickory clubs at Musselburgh

Bonhams Senior Valuer, Hamish Wilson said: "Valuation days are a great way of discovering more about the things you treasure. Over the years we've seen some wonderful pieces of golfing memorabilia that have then been offered successfully at auction. The very rare matching pair of 1957 Masters admissions tickets will be offered in the sporting sale on 24 October 2018 at an estimate of £400-£500."

- A prize for the winning round will be presented in the clubhouse afterwards. (Players must register by 25 June by contacting Hamish.wilson@bonhams.com Course fee £8.50 + £10 for hire of hickory clubs).

Photo shows Hamish Wilson Senior Valuer at Bonhams and Boris Lietzow (tweed cap) of Jack Wilson golf shop in Gullane practising with hickory clubs at Musselburgh