

Speedway – Edinburgh Monarchs Looking to Palovarra for points

Victor Palovarra has scored around eight points in nearly every meeting in Poland.

And Edinburgh Monarchs hope the 24-year-old newcomer can reproduce that form when he makes his debut against Berwick Bandits on Friday (tapes-up 7.30pm).

The Swede will use borrowed equipment for this Knockout Cup quarter-final as his bikes won't get to Armadale on time. Edinburgh skipper Erik Riss is sorting that out.

Victor Palovaara photo courtesy of Edinburgh Monarchs

But the former Glasgow Tigers star is determined to succeed in a Monarchs race jacket.

That's after several failed attempts to join the club in previous seasons despite being recommended to the West Lothian-based club by former favourite Robert Eriksson.

Palovarra said: "I've been riding quite well in Poland and I have scored eight, nine points every meeting apart from the last one.

"I've done well in the Allsvenskan League and sometimes in the Elite League."

He added: "I've just packed a box with my machines to be sent over.

"It takes a week to get them over. I've met everyone before and heard it's a good group of guys."