Former Grand Prix star Chris Harris turned on the power as Glasgow Tigers stung Scunthorpe Scorpions in the SGB Championship.

The Cornwall-born racer claimed a 12-point maximum winning his four rides in the comfortable 54-36 success.

Tigers lost the first heat 4-2 when former Glasgow captain Aaron Summers, who was guesting for Scorpions, sped away from the pack despite early pressure from Richie Worrall.

A 5-1 in the third race courtesy of Claus Vissing and Paul Starke, put the home side ahead 10-8.

Another 5-1 in Heat Four extended their advantage to 15-9 and they never looked back.

A 5-1 in Heat Nine made it 33-21 in favour of the home side and they closed out Scorpions with a run of four 3-3 drawn heats.

And a 4-2 in the second last race extended Tigers advantage to 49-35 before they finished off with a 5-1 thanks to a win by Worrall with Starke in second spot.

Summers, now with Berwick Bandits, top scored for the visitors with 12 points.
